

Wellness in Piedmont 2007

The Piedmont region has become very popular after the 2006 Winter Olympic Games and group tours have increased significantly.

This region in North Italy offers a wide range of interesting resorts. A big tourist draw are its thermal springs.

The ideal destination to combine thermal stay with interesting tours is Acqui Terme in the south-eastern part of the region, 80 Km from Turin.

Acqui Terme - Piedmont

The Roman town lies on the gently rolling hills of Alto Monferrato in Piedmont, the region in north-western Italy. This area offers a spectacular scenery of vineyards surrounded by the slopes of the Apennines. From here you can easily reach important cities such as the capital of fashion Milan, Turin, Italy's first capital, and Genoa with its famous port.

The possible excursions...

Alba and wine tasting in the Langhe

The capital of Langhe is well known for its white truffle. We take a stroll through the old town and see the medieval monuments and buildings. Later we travel through the Barolo area. We visit a wine cellar and sample excellent wines like Barolo, Barbaresco and Dolcetto d'Alba.

Canelli, the capital of Spumante

The area of Canelli - a natural scenery of vine yards and hills - is the most important centre for the production of the worldwide renown Asti Spumante.

The town is made up of the lower Borgo and the upper Villanuova with the amazing "underground cathedrals", the baroque church San Rocco and the medieval church San Tommaso. In Canelli are two main pearl wine producers.

In search of the famous truffle of Alba

The white truffle of Alba is the most famous kind of truffle. Its colour is white grey with red nuances.

Like the famous "trifulau", we walk through oak woods and wild poplars in search of truffles.

Discover Turin in a different way

Renown as the capital of automobile and industry, Turin is also rich in monument and cultural treasures.

You discover the historic centre on a bicycle tour. Later visit to the Roman town, the Citadel, Torino Liberty, the Dome, the Mole Antonelliana, through the most famous streets and squares.

Full day excursion:
Turin and San Michele abbey

Visit to the capital of Piedmont, Turin. In the afternoon you visit the Abbey of San Michele with a commanding position atop Mount Pirchiriano. You go up the "stairs of the dead people" and see the "gate of the stars", the church and the crypt.

Saluzzo - between history and legend

Saluzzo is rich in history and artistic treasures. On a sightseeing tour in the medieval old town you see ancient noble palaces with terracotta decorations. The town is dominated by the imposing castle of the Duchy of Saluzzo. In the afternoon you can join a visit to the Cistercians Abbey Santa Maria di Staffarda.

Turin Cafés

A stroll through the historical cafés of the city in Piazza San Carlo, Piazza Carignano, Via Po and Piazza Castello up to the ancient Café "Bicerin" where you sample the famous Bicerin".

Genoa - Portofino

Genoa, former marine republic and the most important town of Liguria, fascinates visitors with its beautiful architecture. We head for Rapallo, a popular holiday resort on Eastern Riviera. From the yacht port we take a ferry to the Portofino, a wonderful natural bay. From here we reach the tiny village of San Fruttuoso.

McArthurGlen Outlet in Serravalle Scrivia

With its 38.000 sqm, 150 shops and yearly 3.000.000 visitors, McArthurGlen is the largest shopping centre in Europe. Here you can buy items with discounts ranging up to 70%.

Open daily 10am - 8pm

Someone you must meet: Mr. Strumia in Sommariva Bosco

The place with its sign and window looks very simple however it offers the best: delicious ice, Peschemoscato, Roero strawberries, agnolotti al "plin" con cardi, paste di meliga, baked apples. Enjoy a glass of ice with Roero strawberry sauce and balsamic vinegar prepared by Mrs. Franca. Delicious shopping heaven!

Exclusive: Old timer rally in the Turin hills (upon request)

An unforgettable event: trip into the past on an old car through Piedmont natural sceneries.

Dogs go to school too

Visit to the training centre for truffle hunting dogs in Roddi (70 km from Turin), the only one of its kind in Italy. During the visit you learn more about the secrets of truffle hunting, the different kinds of truffle and truffle hunting dogs.
