

Passion & Pleasure
In the most beautiful country of the world

All at once ...

Northern Italy for Insiders!

We have discovered a wonderful 4* Hotel near by Verona, with which we have made excellent experiences in 2006.

Hence, we have elaborated a programme together, which will enable you to get to know better the area between Lake Garda and Tuscany.

Although this region may topographically be kind of "flat", culturally it offers a varied profile of attractions which assure you a pleasant and thrilling stay:

- Verona and Valpolicella
- Brescello with "Don Camillo e Peppone" memories
- Sabbioneta
- Modena
- Parma

And you'll enjoy it all at once: a tasting of parmesan cheese, balsamic vinegar, ham, salami, Lambrusco wine and zabaione, in fact all the products of the emilian "food valley"!

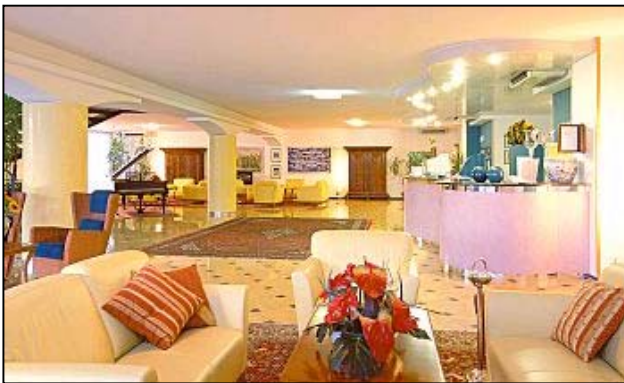

The Hotel...

Hotel Antares ****

Hotel Antares is a new 4* complex, placed at 12 km from Verona and 25 km from Lake Garda.

The hotel combines comfort and elegance.

The 184 rooms are fit out with most modern comfort: telephone, TV sat, pay TV, Minibar, bathroom with shower or jacuzzi (100 rooms).

...And now the entire programme...

Day 1

Arrival at Hotel Antares and welcome's cocktail. Subsequently collective dinner and overnight stay.

Day 2

After breakfast we recommend to discover the Sirmionetown on your own.

You have the option to be exploring the city on a boat-trip and to be gazing at the Catullo caves from the lakeside.

After the free lunch break common city tour through Verona.

The guests will be accompanied by the guide up to the San Leonardo Hill, where they can enjoy the wonderful view over the city.

After that, stroll to the testimonies of the sculptor's age, the Scaglieri graves and on to the city centre to visit the typical Italian piazzas: Piazza dei Signori, Piazza delle Erbe and Piazza Bra. A few steps ahead, you'll see the Capuleti-Palace with Juliet's famous balcony. The last highlight of the tour will be the visit of the world-famous Arena di Verona.

After the sight-seeing continuation of the trip to the area of Valpolicella to visit a cellar with wine tasting and a small snack.

Return to the hotel. Dinner and overnight stay.

Day 3

After breakfast collective trip to Mantua, Brescello and Sabbioneta.

The tour guide will show you the centre of Mantua and the Palazzo Ducale. Continuation to Brescello, to visit the museum "Don Camillo e Peppone". Brescello: a village on the shore of river Po, which is known for Peppone and Don Camillo. Afterwards we will visit Sabbioneta with its Palazzo Giardino, the Galleria, the Teatro all'Antica and Palazzo Ducale.

Return to the hotel.

Dinner and overnight stay.

Day 4

After breakfast collective excursion to Parma and Modena.

The art city Parma has gotten its nickname with good reason for the music and the visual arts, but nonetheless because of its fine and unique cuisine; two very popular products find their origin right here: the parmesan cheese as well as the Parma ham.

Ducale, Torre Ghirlandina, Piazza Grande and Palazzo Comunale are only a few of them.
Return to the hotel. Dinner and overnight stay.

Day 5

Today we have to go back home... But hopefully with a soon comeback!

After the sight-seeing we continue our trip in the direction of Modena, where you can taste typical emilian products.

Of all Italian regions, Emilia Romagna is the queen of international known products: It is the origin not only of parmesan cheese and Parma ham, but also of Lambrusco wine, balsamic vinegar, salami, tortellini and lasagna, to be naming only the most famous ones. Followingly, you will visit the city of Modena. She offers a large number of cultural monuments: the dome, Palazzo
