

Backpack, rhythm and lots of fun in "ancient" Rome

This is the call note that will lead your customers to the eternal city on new year's eve this year, too!

Rome is always worth a visit, but New Year's eve in Rome, now that is something special. In Italy it is long known that new year's eve has to be celebrated on the squares and streets. In Rome, every corner is home to artists, live music and lots of other entertainment that makes this night look like a day. Where could this event be better located as in Rome, the City of 1000 squares?
